Notwithstanding Article 11:03 both parties to this agreement are committed to maintain the principle of a basic workweek of forty (40) hours, but agree that additional time may be worked to permit operation or protection of the plant when paid for as shown in the Overtime Section of the Collective Agreement.

9.02

Notwithstanding Article 11:03 the normal work schedule will be eight (8) hours per day; five (5) days per week, with Saturday and Sunday as days off.

- a) If a need should arise to change an employee's start time within their shift, employees will be given a minimum of forty-eight (48) hours written notice of a change from one start time to another. The Employer may request that an employee report to work no more than thirty (30) minutes before or after their normally scheduled start time without forty-eight (48) hours' notice for an impromptu meeting or training. The employee shall not unreasonably refuse such request. It is agreed that such change will go to volunteers first and if no volunteer is found, it shall then go to the junior qualified employee(s).
- b) If the need should arise to change an employee from one shift to another, the employee shall be given a minimum of five (5) days written notice of a change from one shift to another. 9.06

- (a) The Company may, if workload and / or customer demands require it, implement the same schedule listed in this Section with the exception that the schedule would run over seven (7) days. Employees will however still receive two consecutive days off.
- (b) In implementing this schedule, the Company will provide a minimum of fourteen (14) days written notice to the Union. The Company would then seek volunteers by seniority, within the affected job category. If no volunteers are forthcoming, the Company would choose by reverse seniority, within the affected job category.

The Company agrees to provide to the Union Plant Committee, upon request, a shift list detailing what shifts and start times employees are working.

9.08

Any changes or modifications to the HOURS OF WORK Section in the Collective Agreement will be subject to the mutual agreement of both parties which mutual agreement shall not be unreasonably withheld.

ARTICLE 10 - SHIFT DIFFERENTIAL

10.01

- a) A per hour differential of fifty ($.50) cents will be paid to any employee whose start time falls within the afternoon shift start times as defined in the Hours Of Work Section of the Collective Agreement. Rates will be maintained as above or escalated if the Company program has a rate increase during the term of this agreement.

10.02

Differential will be paid in addition to an employee's regular rate of compensation, but it is not to be added to the wage rates for the purpose of calculating overtime

ARTICLE 11 - OVERTIME

Overtime is defined as:

- a) Any hours worked before the starting time or after the quitting time of the regularly scheduled shift.
- b) Any hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a regularly scheduled shift.
- c) Any hours worked on an employees' regularly scheduled day off, or on a Statutory holiday.

11.02

Overtime will be paid for at the following rates:

- a) Time and one-half for the first three (3) hours worked in excess of eight (8) hours in a day and double time thereafter.
- b) Time and one-half for the first eight (8) hours worked in excess of forty (40) hours in a week and double time for all hours worked in excess of forty-eight (48) hours in a week. For the purpose of calculating weekly overtime, only the first eight (8) hours worked by an employee in each day are counted.
- c) Time and one-half (1.5) for all hours worked on holidays as defined in the Holiday Section of the Collective Agreement.

- a) Employees working on a job where there is end of shift overtime shall complete their assignments notwithstanding that overtime may be payable.
- b) For planned overtime, employees will be canvassed by seniority within the classification where the overtime is to occur. If no one volunteers, the Company may direct the junior qualified person to perform the work.

- c) To facilitate the availability and fair distribution of overtime, employees wishing to work overtime shall so indicate by signing a Request for Overtime form to be supplied by the Company every two weeks.

ARTICLE 12 - ALLOWANCE FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE WORK

12.01

In any case where an employee reports for their regular scheduled shift and no work is provided, they will nevertheless receive two (2) hours pay for so reporting.

12.02

In any case where an employee has commenced their regular scheduled shift, they will receive a minimum of four (4) hours pay.

ARTICLE 13 - MINIMUM CALL FOR EMPLOYEES

13.01

An employee who is called back to work after their shift is completed, or who is called in to work on a regular day off, will receive the greater of either four (4) hours pay at their regular rate or the applicable overtime pay.

ARTICLE 14 – PAGERS

Bargaining unit employees and the Union agree to participate in the Company on call program which is a requirement of the Company's business.

- a) Employees who carry pagers shall be paid twenty-five ($25.00) dollars per day Monday – Friday, or thirty-five ($35.00) dollars per day Saturday, Sunday & Statutory holidays while carrying the pager.
- b) Rates will be maintained as above or escalated if the Company Program has a rate increase during the term of this agreement.
- c) Employees who report for work as a result of being paged will be paid a minimum of four (4) hours of pay or the applicable overtime pay, whichever is the greater, for each time they report for work.
- d) The established rate for on call will be the Courier rate. Employees on call will receive their regular rate of pay or the courier rate, whichever is greater.
- e) It is agreed that the on call pool must consist of a minimum of ten (10) people, to include volunteers and junior employees as outlined below.

- f) The Company shall post a volunteer pager duty list every two (2) weeks. Employees who volunteer must maintain their availability for that period.
- g) To ensure that the Company has sufficient employees for the program, it will train and maintain a pool from the six (6) most junior employees to be qualified for the on call program.
- h) In the event that the Company has insufficient volunteers, it will then seek volunteers by seniority within the pool, in the event there are still insufficient volunteers, it will force assign from the pool the most junior employees in reverse seniority order, to carry a pager for a two (2) week period. Further, in the event employees are forced from the pool, the Company will rotate from junior to senior employees to ensure the same employees are not continually forced to carry the a pager for more than a two (2) week period.

ARTICLE 15 – SENIORITY

15.01 Principle

Upon successful completion of their probationary period, bargaining unit seniority will be based on an employee's hire date.

15.02 Probationary Employees

Employees will be considered probationary until they have completed four hundred and eighty (480) hours with the Company. This period may be extended by the Employer for an additional one hundred and sixty (160) hours.

Prior to an employee's probationary period being extended, the Union Plant Committee will be informed of the reasons for the extension and the employee will meet with a representative from the Company and the Union to explain the reasons for the extension.

During the probationary period, the Company will determine the employee's suitability for regular employment. The Company may dismiss a probationary employee if they find the employee not suitable for regular employment.

15.03 Job Postings

- a) When a job becomes vacant or a new position is established, it will be posted for a period of five (5) working days and a notification of the posting will be forwarded to the Union Plant Committee. Employees who desire the posted position must submit an application electronically to the Company within the posting period. Employees who require support with the electronic application process may reach out to their Supervisor for assistance (i.e. computer access, assistance with online application process, etc).

- b)
 - i) In awarding the posted position, the Company will give first consideration to the senior employee, within the same classification as the vacancy or new position exists, who shows sufficient ability to perform the job.
 - ii) For successful applicants from within the classification, the Company will provide the employee with an orientation of the job.
 - iii) If no one applies within the same classification, or no applicant within the same classification is successful, the Company will next consider those from outside the classification who have applied. The senior employee with sufficient ability will be awarded the job posting.
 - iv) For successful applicants outside the classification, the first one hundred and sixty (160) hours after reporting to the job will be considered a trial period. During this trial period the Company will provide adequate instruction, and may transfer the employee back to their former job if the employee fails to demonstrate sufficient ability to perform the new job. The employee may also elect to return to their former job, during the trial period, of their own choice. Upon returning to their former job, the employee will be unable to post on the same position for six (6) months from the date of their return.
 - v) In awarding a posting into the coordinator position, the Company reserves the right to select the successful applicant. It being understood that prior experience and acceptable performance of employees from within the bargaining unit will be given special consideration in regards to awarding the position.

The first one hundred and sixty (160) hours after reporting to the Co-coordinator position will be considered a trial period. During this trial period the Company will provide adequate instruction, and may transfer the employee back to their former job if the employee fails to demonstrate the ability to perform the new job. The employee may also elect to return to their former job, during the trial period, of their own choice. Upon returning to their former job, the employee will be unable to post on the same position for six (6) months from the date of their return.

- c) In the event more than one applicant posts for an opening and the employee selected returns to their former position, the posting will remain valid for one (1) further selection.

- d) Employees who are absent on vacation or are otherwise unavailable, will be considered for job postings if they have left notice, in writing, with the Company that they would be interested in an opening should it become available. The Company will not however, consider any such employee whose absence from work is scheduled to extend more than thirty (30) calendar days beyond the closing date of a given posting. A copy of such notice will be forwarded to the Union Plant Committee upon request.
- e) Probationary employees are not eligible to apply for posted positions.

15.04 Sufficient Ability

Sufficient ability will be defined as follows:

- a) For posting into a vacancy or new job from outside the classification, sufficient ability is defined as having the ability to perform the base functions of the job and upon completion of the trial period, sufficient ability is defined as being able to pass the appropriate checkout for the job;
- b) For posting into a vacancy or new job from within the classification, sufficient ability is defined as being able to pass the appropriate checkout for the job;
- c) For the purposes of recall and bumping, sufficient ability is defined as being able to pass the appropriate checkout for the job.

The Company will develop the checkouts for the different jobs and will consider input from the Union. Checkouts will be hands on and / or written.

15.05 Layoff, Recall, and Bumping

- a) If a reduction in the workforce is necessary, the following procedure will be adopted:

If the employment of any employee, who has completed the probationary period, is to be laid off for loss of business, the Company will provide at least twenty-one (21) days written notice to the Plant Committee and the affected employee.

The employee with the least amount of seniority in a classification subject to a reduction will be the first out of that classification, but may then use their seniority to displace the most junior employee provided they have sufficient ability to perform the job. If they do not have sufficient ability to bump the most junior employee in the plant, then they would bump the next most junior employee in the plant, and so on up the list until a job is found that the employee has sufficient ability to bump into.

When requested, bumping employees will be provided with up to two (2) days familiarization in the new job.

An employee who is displaced from a job as a result of a bumping procedure may likewise bump other employee(s) having less seniority using the same procedure listed above.

- b) An employee coming out of their classification may choose not to bump and may instead either go on recall or take severance. If the employee chooses not to bump, then they must indicate their choice to either go on recall or take severance to the Company, in writing, within five (5) calendar days of receiving layoff notice.

If the employee chooses to take severance they would get the severance entitlement as outlined in the "Job Security" provisions of the Collective Agreement, and would then no longer be an employee of the Company.

- c) An employee who is displaced from a job as a result of bumping will be provided the same options outlined in (b) above. If this employee chooses not to bump, then they must indicate their choice to either go on recall or take severance to the Company, in writing, within five (5) calendar days of receiving layoff notice.

- d) An employee coming out of their classification who does not have the seniority to bump will go on recall but may, at their option, choose to take severance. If the employee should choose to take severance they must indicate this choice, in writing to the Company, within five (5) days of receiving notice of layoff.

If the employee chooses to take severance they would get the severance entitlement as outlined in the "Job Security" provisions of the Collective Agreement, and would then no longer be an employee of the Company.

- e) An employee who elects to maintain their recall rights who subsequently has these rights run out will then be entitled to the appropriate severance payment.

- f) Recall will be based on seniority provided the senior laid off employee has sufficient ability to perform the job.

- g) As employees are recalled, other employees will be slotted back into their original positions, with the ultimate goal to see all employees back in their original positions once all employees have been recalled.

- h) Should an employee hold a bumped position for one (1) year or longer, then this will then be deemed to be their new position.

15.06 Laid Off Employees

Laid off employees will retain benefit coverage until the end of the month in which they are laid off.

Employees may make arrangements to retain benefits beyond this period of time if they pay all required premiums. Benefit plans will be reinstated upon the employee's return to full time work.

15.07 Hourly Employees Transferred To Staff

- a) Any employee transferred to a supervisory or salaried position which removes them from the bargaining unit may retain their seniority for a period of three (3) months. If the employee elects to maintain seniority in this fashion, the employee will maintain Union membership during this three (3) month time period, on the condition that Union dues are kept current. If Union dues are not kept current, the employee will lose Union membership and all seniority.
- b) If the employee requests the Company to continue to remit Union dues on the employee's behalf during this time period then the Company will remit such Union dues based on the wage rate of the last job held by the employee in the bargaining unit.
- c) The employee alone bears the responsibility of ensuring the employee's seniority standing.

15.08 Loss of Seniority

An employee shall lose seniority and shall be deemed to no longer be an employee if:

- a) they resign their position as an employee;
- b) they are terminated for cause;
- c) they overstay an authorized leave of absence without a bona fide reason for not returning as required;
- d) they fail to return to work for five (5) working days after being recalled from layoff by receipt of a letter by courier or registered mail, except where the employee has a bona fide reason. It is the responsibility of the employee to advise and keep the Company updated of their latest address;
- e) they have less than one years service and are on layoff for six (6) months;

- f) they have one or more years of service and are on layoff for one year.

ARTICLE 16 - JOB SECURITY

16.01 Notice

If the employment of employee(s), who have completed their probation period, is to be terminated for technological change or permanent full or partial plant closure, the Company will provide at least sixty (60) days written notice to the Plant Committee and any employees affected.

16.02 Severance

- a) Any employee (excluding probationary employees) who has their employment terminated for technological change or permanent full or partial plant closure will be entitled to one weeks pay per year of service to a maximum of sixteen (16) weeks pay. Such pay shall, where applicable, be inclusive of any statutory severance pay required under applicable legislation.
- b) For the weeks per year calculation, severance is computed based on forty (40) hours straight time pay at the employee's regular rate of pay.
- c) Partial years of service will be pro-rated in determining severance allowance.

ARTICLE 17 - VACATIONS

17.01 Vacation Entitlement

Vacation pay and vacation time are earned benefits. Vacation pay is based on hours and vacation time is based on service.

The actual vacation pay entitlement is earned based on the employee's regular hours worked and the actual vacation time entitlement is based on the employee's completed years of service and any increase will occur on his or her continuous service date.

Length of Service		Vacation Time Earned	Vacation Pay %	Vacation Pay Hours
0-4 years	0-48 months	2 weeks of vacation time earned after each 12 months.	4%	80 Hours
4+ years	49-108 months	3 weeks of vacation time earned after each 12 months	6%	120 Hours
9+ years	109-192 months	4 weeks of vacation time earned after each 12 months	8%	160 Hours
16+years	193 + months	5 weeks of vacation time earned after each 12 months	10%	200 Hours

17.02

Payment on Termination: On termination of employment, an employee will be paid any unpaid vacation pay.

17.03 General Rules

- a) The reference period to determine the amount of vacation pay shall be January 1st – December 31st of the previous year of employment and will be based on the total hours worked in that year inclusive of OT.
- b) Employees will be expected to take / use their vacation time in the calendar year in following the calendar year in which it was earned. Where an employee has more than five (5) years of service then they may accumulate and carry forward any vacation in excess of two (2) weeks up to a maximum accrual of twice their annual earning.
- c) The allocation of vacation time is to be decided by the Company; however, the Company will endeavor to schedule vacations to suit the employee’s request.

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING # 4

BETWEEN:

UNIFOR, LOCAL 433

hereinafter referred to as "the Union"

AND:

IRON MOUNTAIN CANADA CORPORATION

hereinafter referred to as "the Company"

SUBJECT: WORKPLACE HARASSMENT

The Company and the Union agree that there will be no discrimination, interference, restraint or harassment or coercion exercised or practised by either of them, or by any of their representatives, with respect to any employee because of his/her race, color, marital status, creed, nationality or sex, on account of religious or political affiliations, or because of his/her membership or activities or lack of membership or activities, in the Union.

The Company and the Union agree that there will be no discrimination, interference, restraint or harassment or coercion exercised or practised by either of them, or by any of their representatives with respect to any employee because of age, sexual orientation, or disability, save and expect those limitations as set out in the Legislation of the Province of British Columbia.

The Company and Unifor are committed to providing a harassment free workplace. Harassment is defined as a "course of vexatious comment or conduct that is known or ought reasonably be known to be unwelcome", that denies individual dignity and respect on the basis of the grounds such as: gender, disability, race, colour, sexual orientation or other prohibited grounds. All employees are expected to treat others with courtesy and consideration and to discourage harassment.

The workplace is defined as any company facility and includes areas such as offices, shop floors, restrooms, cafeterias, lockers, conference rooms, and parking lots.

Harassment may take many forms: verbal, physical or visual. It may involve a threat or an implied threat or be perceived as a condition of employment. The following examples could be considered as harassment but are not meant to cover all potential incidents:

- Unwelcome remarks, bullying, jokes, innuendos, gestures, or taunting about a person's body, disability, attire or gender, racial or ethnic backgrounds, colour, place of birth, sexual orientation, citizenship or ancestry,
- practical jokes, pushing, shoving, etc. which cause awkwardness or embarrassment,
- posting or circulation of offensive photos or visual materials,
- refusal to work or converse with an employee because of their racial background or gender,

- unwanted physical conduct such as touching, patting, pinching, etc.,
- condescension or paternalism which undermines self-respect,
- backlash or retaliation for the lodging of a complaint or participation in an investigation.

HARASSMENT IS NOT:

Harassment is in no way to be construed as properly discharged supervisory responsibilities including the delegation of work assignments, the assessment of discipline or any conduct that does not undermine the dignity of the individual. Neither is this policy meant to inhibit free speech or interfere with normal social relations.

FILING A COMPLAINT:

If an employee believes that they have been harassed and/or discriminated against on the basis of any prohibited ground of discrimination, there are specific actions that may be taken to put a stop to it. First, request a stop of the unwanted behaviour. Inform the individual that is doing the harassing or the discriminating against you that the behaviour is unwanted and unwelcome. It is advisable to document the events, complete with times, dates, location, witnesses and details.

However, it is also understood that some victims of discrimination or harassment are reluctant to confront their harasser or they may fear reprisals from the harasser, lack of support from their work group, or disbelief by their supervisor or others. The incident should be brought to the attention of your Supervisor and/or Committeeperson.

INVESTIGATION:

Upon receipt of the complaint, the Supervisor/Committeeperson contacted will immediately inform their Union or Company counterpart and together they will then interview the employee and advise the employee if the complaint can be resolved immediately or if the complaint should be reduced to writing on the Human Rights Complaint form or processed through another procedure. Properly completed copies of this form will be forwarded to Human Resources and the Plant Chairperson.

The Plant Chairperson and Human Resources will then determine if the complaint requires a special investigative team comprised of both a Management and Union representative appointed by the Company and Union respectively.

A formal investigation of the complaint will then begin. It may include interviewing the alleged harasser, witnesses and other persons named in the complaint. Any related documents may also be reviewed.

RESOLUTION:

The joint investigators will then complete the report on the findings of the investigation and a copy of the completed Incident Report will be forwarded to Human Resources and the Plant Chairperson who will make a determination on an appropriate resolution. Human Resources and the Plant Chairperson will attempt to resolve within ten (10) days and ensure the resolution is fair and consistent with the intent of the Company and Unifor policy regarding discrimination and harassment in the workplace.

At the conclusion of this step, the complaint, if unresolved, will be inserted into the third step of the Grievance Procedure for resolution. In the event that the complaint is not resolved by the parties at the third step of the Grievance Procedure it may be appealed to arbitration in accordance with the provisions of the Collective Agreement. The parties agree that this procedure is an alternative complaint procedure and as such complaints should not be pursued through both the Grievance Procedure and the Human Rights Complaint Procedure.

The pursuit of frivolous allegations through the Human Rights Complaint Procedure has a detrimental effect on the spirit and intent for which this policy was rightfully developed and should be discouraged.

RIGHT TO REFUSE:

A bargaining unit employee alleging harassment in the workplace is encouraged to use the above procedure to resolve a complaint. However, it is agreed in principle that in serious cases, or when the safety of the employee is being threatened, it may be necessary for that employee to leave the job.

Furthermore, the parties agree that details with respect to the procedure regarding the ability of employees to leave their jobs as outlined above, be developed Unifor and the Company, and will be implemented as a part of this procedure.

The procedure in no way precludes the complainant's right to seek action under the British Columbia Human Rights Code. However, both Unifor and the Company urge employees to use the internal mechanisms as outlined above before seeking alternative recourse.

Overtime will be paid for at the following rates:

 - ii. Time and one-half for the first eight (8) hours worked in excess of forty (40) in a week, and double time for all hours worked in excess of forty-eight (48) in a week. For the purpose of calculating weekly overtime, only the first ten (10) hours worked by an employee in each regular day are counted.
 - iii. Time and one-half for all hours worked on holidays as defined in the Holiday Section of the Collective Agreement.
5. In the event that any holiday falls on an employee's regularly scheduled day(s) off, the day preceding and/or following the employee's day off will be observed. The day to be observed will be decided by the Company, and the employee's preference will be taken into consideration. The employee will be given a minimum of seven (7) days' notice of which day will be observed.
 6. Employees on 10 hour shifts shall be entitled to a week of vacation on the basis of ten (10) hours per day, four (4) days per week.
 7. Employees on these positions shall be allotted (2) two, (15) fifteen minute paid rest breaks and a (30) thirty minute paid lunch period.
 8. At the request of either Party, the Company and Union will meet within (20) twenty days to review, and discuss problems of mutual concern arising from the ten hour schedule.
 9. It is agreed that should serious concerns and matters be raised which are unresolved by the process outlined above, that either party may initiate a grievance as outlined in Article 23.
